

Asymptotic Results for Poincaré Difference Equations

Mihály Pituk

University of Pannonia
Department of Mathematics
Egyetem u. 10
8200 Veszprém, Hungary
`pitukm@almos.uni-pannon.hu`

Poincaré difference equations are linear homogeneous difference equations with asymptotically constant coefficients. Equations of this type have applications among others in the theory of orthogonal polynomials, continued fractions and numerical mathematics. In this talk we give a survey of the most important asymptotic results available for Poincaré difference equations.